

COMMANDER CHARLES LEO GLANDORE EVANS, R. N.

Born Hampshire, England, 2nd August 1908. Only son of Major S. G. Evans, M.C., Grandson of General Leopold Evans and Colonel John Crosbie.

Educated Royal Naval College, Dartmouth.

Continuously in Royal Navy since 1922. Specialised as an Aviation Pilot in 1929 and employed as a Pilot in subsequent appointments.

Married in April 1941, to Kyriakoula Doulcaris, daughter of General Doulcaris of Athens, Greece, at Alexandria, Egypt.

Served at U.S. Naval Air Station, Miami, as resident British Instructor, September 1941 to August 1942, and then in British Admiralty Delegation, Washington, as Superintendent of British Air Training in U.S.A. During this time was also on the staff of Chief of Naval Air Operational Training, U.S.N.

Operational war service as an Aviator in following spheres:

- ATLANTIC, Fighter Command R.A.F. Norway, 1940
- Dunkirk, Mediterranean, Western Desert, Norway, 1945.
- PACIFIC, with U.S. 5th Fleet, served in Aircraft Carriers ILLUSTRIOUS, FORMIDABLE, EAGLE and IMPLACABLE during war.

Distinguished Service Order, Distinguished Service Cross, Mentioned in Despatches three times.

Present appointment as Naval Air Attache and Assistant Naval Attache, British Embassy.

* * * * *

25 February 1947